

Ilisagvik College Recreation Center
Use Agreement and Release of Liability

- The Recreation Center is for Ilisagvik College and community use. Individuals using the facility must complete an orientation and read and sign this agreement.
- Sign-in is necessary each time you check out the key/enter the Recreation Center. Please be specific about your activities and the time and date you use the facility; this information will be helpful in future planning and scheduling.
- While you are in the Recreation Center, you are responsible for your use of the equipment and the facility. Please be considerate and leave the facility as clean and orderly as it was when you arrived; pick up after yourself and replace all equipment to its original storage space before leaving. Please report any damage to the equipment or facility to the Ilisagvik Student Services Department or to the Maintenance and Operations Department, depending on the hour and urgency of the situation. If you are found stealing equipment, a police report will be filed and you will be responsible for all costs associated with the stolen equipment and replacement fees.
- SAFETY is THE TOP PRIORITY. While you use the facility and its equipment, engage in good safety habits (i.e. no heavy lifting without a spotter, no “horse play”, etc). Again, YOU are responsible for the safe use of the Recreation Center and its equipment. In addition to these rules, all the regular Recreation rules are applicable.

I have attended an Equipment and Facility Orientation provided by the Recreation Specialist. I have read, understood, and agree to the above rules pertaining to my use of the Recreation Center and its equipment. I understand that there are inherent risks in exercise and/or use of the Recreation Center and equipment that could result in injury and/or death. I also understand that, prior to commencing an exercise program; the College strongly recommends consultation with my health care provider. I understand that failure to comply with these rules and conditions may result in revocation of my permission to use the Recreation Center. I agree to be charged a fee of $10.00 for any lost or unreturned key to the Recreation Center provided to me, and that any sum or fee may be deducted from any amount due me from the College, including any salary or wages.

I fully understand and assume the risks associated with an exercise program and/or use the Recreation Center and equipment. By my signature below, I release, waive, and discharge any and all rights and/or claims for damages I may have against Ilisagvik College, its Board of Trustees and employees, Ukpeagvik Inupiat Corporation, and the North Slope Borough, on behalf or myself, my heirs, executors, and assigns, for any and all injuries related to my use of the Recreation Center, its equipment or services.
