Dept. and Course #: The program or subject offering the unique course number used to register for the class.

Sec: The number given to differentiate courses with the same subject and course number taught in different formats. Ex: Teleconference, Face-to-Face, Online, etc.

Course Title: In addition to the course title, you might see *BLENDED which means the class meets once a week in person and other assignments will be done independently and submitted online.

Credit: The number of credits you'll earn for successfully completing this course. As a general guideline, 3 hours is approximately 135 hours of work (in class and/or as homework).

Start Date and End Date: Most classes at Iñisaġvik College will be 15 weeks long but some are shorter so make sure to set a reminder for classes you register for with a later start date.

Bldg/Room: Make sure to check out the map before classes start and plan your transportation ahead of time. Call 907-855-0583 for information about the College Van.

Availability:

TC: Teleconference – students will be participating by phone; the instructor will give you a phone number to call-in at the start of class.

OL: Online – students will be receive and submit assignments online; students will need to have reliable access to the internet.

SS: Screen-sharing – students will be expected to be online during class time where they will be watching the instructor's computer screen

VTC: Video Teleconference – students will go to a place with video conferencing equipment and will interact live with their class throughout the course

UTQ: Utqiagvik – Students are expected to be physically in the classroom in Utqiagvik (Barrow).

ANC: Anchorage – Students are expected to be physically in the classroom in Anchorage.

What if I want more information about what the course?

You can read the course description in the College Catalog available at www.ilisagvik.edu or the Registrar's Department.

Max Enrollment: This is the maximum number of students who can register for the class so register early to reserve your spot.
